Personal Profile

I consider myself a quiet confident mature young adult who is eager to learn and try new things.

I have the ability to work as part of a team or on my own. I have demonstrated this through starting my working career with Euro car parts working weekends I was fortunate to be offered a full time position as a warehouse assisatant have been employed with Euro car parts for over three years and have recently got promoted to warehouse supervisor at the Ayr branch.

My role includes van controlling, delivering, gathering specified parts, locating them within the warehouse using allocated paper work, collecting and distributing them to either the customers or preparing for our deliver drivers also within my managerial role I'm now controlling the warehouse and their staff making sure the branch is running to company policy and standard.

I also deal with members of the public who have enquires regarding parts they may need support and guidance.

I enjoy the hands on approach to work and meeting new people.
