Personal Summary

I am a reliable hard-working individual who is always eager to learn new skills and have worked in diverse teams as well as working individually. People would describe me as an organised individual who is always punctual, understanding the importance of making sure all tasks are completed with haste and precision. I am capable of completing multiple tasks at a time whilst maintaining high standards. I would describe myself as an approachable person who listens well and understands what is required of me. I have always enjoyed driving for pleasure seeking now to build a successful career within the HGV Driver Industry. I have recently obtained my category C+E licence after obtaining my category C licence in february.

Employment History

June 2023 - Present

A and R Elite Scaffolding

Class 2 HGV driver and Labourer.

My responsibilities include driving class 2 lorries and labouring during the construction of scaffolding. I carried out pre vehicle checks to make sure they were roadworthy and if any defects were found they were reported to management to allow for quick fixes. I also handled paperwork and ensured the vehicle was loaded correctly and safely so that it was roadworthy and not a hazard whilst out on the road.

March 2023- June 2023.

Fresh Direct.

Class 2 HGV driver.

As a class 2 driver I am responsible for maintaining the cleanliness and condition of the vehicle, including reporting any defects. I have carried out scheduled deliveries to shops as well as completing any paperwork that is required. I have learned to plan my route effectively to compensate for any traffic and road closures. Moreover i have unloaded the deliveries into the customers shops safely and in a timely manner.

August 2021- March 2023.

DHL Supply Chain.

Warehouse Operative.

Working at DHL has meant that I have continued to work in a fast-paced environment. I continually meet and exceed the pick rate. I have been trained on multiple mechanical handling equipment such as Llop trucks. Working in different temperature environments in the warehouse has improved my adaptability. I frequently overtake overtime, especially during the busiest periods, including over the festive season.

October 2017– August 2021.

McDonalds.

Crew Trainer.

Working at McDonalds means that I understand how to work in a very fast paced environment. As a crew trainer I have numerous responsibilities including training and coaching new crew members, managing different areas of the store, and supporting the management team. I have undertaken various roles at McDonalds including unloading the deliveries, ensuring stock rotation, handling and preparing food, furthermore, managing money and delivering excellent customer service. I have worked a wide range of shifts including opening the store as well as closing it. Whilst I have been there, I have achieved employee of the month and worked several record hours and days.
