

EMMANUELLA PREYE-OGEH

Huntingdon, Huntingdonshire PE29 1NR | Nuellaogeh@gmail.com

SUMMARY

In September 2025, performed alongside the Theatretrain Huntingdon group in the play 'We're Gonna Change the World' at The Royal Albert Hall. In May 2024, completed and passed the Care Certificate. From September to December 2024, participated in an international pageant called Miss Pride of Africa and won the title of Miss Congeniality. Has been a member and leader of a group of people for the Global Social initiative.

WORK HISTORY

Sainsbury's – Huntingdon, Huntingdonshire

Customer Service Assistant (August 2023 – October 2024)

- Assisted customers at tills and resolved issues
- Scanned customer shopping at tills
- Returned unwanted items to shelves (put-backs)
- Managed baskets and trolleys outside the store

Woodgreen – Huntingdon, Huntingdonshire, England

Volunteer (December 2022 – March 2023)

- Sorted clothes, bric-a-brac, and books in the stock area
- Arranged books on shelves and clothes on racks

SKILLS

- Good communicator
- Patient listener
- Strong multitasking ability
- Fundamental computer skills
- Swift problem-solving skills

EDUCATION

St Peter's School, Huntingdon (September 2022 – June 2023)

GCSEs: Maths, English Language & Literature, Science, French, History, Sport Science

Inspire Education Group, Stamford (September 2024 – June 2026)

A-Levels: Law, Politics, History

Currently in the second year of A-levels. Aspiring to study Law with Politics/International Relations at university.

CUSTOM / CERTIFICATIONS

Completed and passed GCSEs – August 2023

Completed and passed Care Certificate – May 2024