Project Manager in European funds project Agricultural structures Self-employed

Receive, check documents and write projects in order to access the European funds granted to Romania by NPRD. This is about absorption capacity of the European Union funds intended for agriculture and countryside in one of the poorest Romanian regions, which at the same time, has the highest rate of population employed in agriculture. Measure 141: this is characterized by an increased number of beneficiaries but with a low financial allocation, favouring the participation of semi-subsistence farms and beneficiaries of agricultural environmental payments who far exceeded the percentage of participation originally scheduled;
